

Keyword Recap - Fill in the Blanks

ENTERPRISE	FINANCIAL	CULTURAL	SOCIAL	PROFIT
SURPLUS	COMMUNITY	VOLUNTEERS	CHARITY	EMPLOYMENT

Sentence	Answer
An _____ is any organisation that provides goods or services.
A _____ enterprise is a business set up with the main aim of earning a profit for its owners.
A _____ enterprise promotes arts, sport, heritage or traditions in our communities.
A _____ enterprise puts people and community ahead of private profit.
A for-profit enterprise aims to make a _____ for its owners.
A not-for-profit enterprise reinvests any _____ back into the cause it supports.
Cultural enterprises bring people together and contribute to a _____ identity in the local area.
Social enterprises often rely on _____, so services may be reduced when fewer people give their time.
A social enterprise is not the same as a _____, which relies mainly on donations.
Financial enterprises create _____, so local people earn an income.

